2/28/65

Dear Ray,

In going over the proofs of NEVER AGAIN!, a trying experience because again they have been cut, rather it has been, and the editing introduced all kinds of errors, I had to consult the rough draft.

In the course of that I found I have an xtra copy of the rough draft of the Afterword.

I neclose it in the evebt you'd like to have it.

If not, just get rid of it.

But either way please keep it confidential until the book is published.

Best,

Harold